Following the popularity once again of last years Multi Sport Camps at Pitlochry this year there will be two weeks of Camps held. I look forward to seeing familiar faces from previous years back for the Camp's and hope that some keen juniors are eager to make the most of their summer on the tennis court by coming along for both weeks.

Both Camps are for complete beginners to development standard. Get in some quality summer practice time on court with professional coaches or the perfect opportunity to try tennis for the first time in a fun/ multi sport environment. Lots of fun tennis games, rally competitions and match play as part of the schedule every day. With all round sporting ability developed through other games including basketball, rounders, football, tag, cricket etc..... on the recreation field.

Summer Holiday Tennis & Multi Sport Camps in Perthshire and Angus

These camps are a great opportunity to keep your tennis going over the summer holidays or if you are new to tennis a perfect time to try the sport in a fun environment.

Jaki Stewart, LTA Licence DCA is the head coach at each of these courses. Jaki hails from Australia where she was a coach at a leading Sydney tennis centre, organising successful holiday tennis and sport camps for many years. Jaki now calls Perthshire home and is looking forward to another successful summer with the tennis clubs of Scone, Pitlochry and Kirriemuir. She looks forward to meeting all the potential Andy Murray's out there once again over the summer.
